

The city of paulownia

This is the winter tradition in Kasukabe.
We are looking forward to your visit!

KASUKABE "HAGOITA" AND OTHER CRAFTS FAIR

December 21st (Thu),
22nd (Fri), 23rd (Sat), 2017
10am - 7pm (5pm on Saturday)

Tobu Skytree Line & Urban Park Line

Kasukabe station, East Gate (No parking lot)

The 'Oshie-Hagoita' – decorative battledore racquet – is a craft specialty of Kasukabe. It is commonly known as a lucky charm which disperses evil spirits, or a gift celebrating birth of a girl and wishing healthy development. The fair features Oshie-Hagoita plus many other traditional craftworks, such as Paulownia wood boxes and straw work products. Please join the proud producers of traditional craftsmanship at 20th fair, a popular gathering well-known within and beyond Kasukabe.

【Join us for】

- Traditional crafts for sale
- Live demonstrations by craftsmen
- Battledore art (for kids)
- Historical and novel battledores displays (will be rain-out)
- 3 meters high battledore displays (will be rain-out)
- Tearoom (free green tea)
- Battledore-themed Japanese sweets, rice cake for sale

Hagoita
HAGOTCH

Paulownia
wood box
BACCO

Straw Hat
HATTY

Sponsor

Kasukabe Special Products Conference
Kasukabe Hagoita association

Supporter

Kasukabe City
Kasukabe Chamber of Commerce & Industry
Kasukabe Tourist Association

Cooperator Tobu Railway Co., LTD.

We also sell traditional crafts (paulownia boxes and straw products) – they are well known as specialties of Kasukabe.

Contact us : 048-763-1122